Tales From The Dark Past - Books 1-3

After a discussion of current theory and research findings relating to rehabilitation of brain injury, this book presents 20 case studies of adults with severe brain injuries sustained several years earlier. The causes of their brain damage include traumatic head injuries, encephalitis, stroke and hypoxia. Problems that follow such injuries including loss of self-care skills, memory impairment, language, reading, visuoperceptual and behavioural difficulties, are analysed in detail. The book describes the premorbid lifestyle of each of the 20 individuals, the onset of their brain damage, subsequent symptoms, neuropsychological assessment, rehabilitation, and long-term outcome. Most chapters include a report by the patient and/or family member, thus providing an extra dimension that helps to increase the reader's understanding of the predicaments faced by brain-injured individuals as they learn to cope with traumatic changes in lifestyle. Although improvement for most brain-injured people is slow and limited, all those described in this book made some progress after their admission to rehabilitation services. The exhaustive analysis of each case and step-by-step description of treatment will encourage professionals and other care-givers that much can be done for this severely injured group. For students of neuropsychology and rehabilitation, the book should serve as an inspiring and informative supplementary text.

Who are the important artists of the 1980s? This book urges a new look at that question in light of the digital direction of our culture since then. Specifically, five artists used advanced technology during that decade in ways that foreshadow many of today's concerns. Joseph Nechvatal created expressive digital images, and then infected them with computer viruses. Lynn Hershman Leeson created the first interactive work for videodisk, creating a bridge between art and gaming. Nancy Burson foresaw multicultural America when she digitally blended photographs of diverse persons. George Legrady was among the first artists to digitally manipulate news images and offer the results as art. Gretchen Bender's use of digital imagery in her work has never been adequately discussed. If the digital matters, then these artists should also matter.

Christian Woman

Annie Ashford is a gentle teenage girl living in rural Texas at the beginning of the twentieth century. A kind young deacon, Paul Haynes, is courting her, and her future life promises to be a happy one. Then a newcomer arrives in town--a handsome half-breed named Deal Porter. Powerless against his brooding charm, Annie marries Deal, completely unaware that he is a psychopathic murderer. By turns touching, humorous, and terrifying, Run, Annie, Run is an unforgettable and evocative book, teeming with fascinating characters and situations. Spanning fifty years of Annie's turbulent life, the novel draws the reader completely and masterfully into the worlds it portrays, both the physical one of a now-vanished Texas, and the emotional one of its gallant, doomed heroine.

Neuropsychological Rehabilitation

A dramatic and compelling story of friendship, family, and one woman's plight; in her search for self love, truth, understanding, and her unmitigated gall to attempt to change the course of history as she knew it. Cadence takes a painful but necessary journey, through the contents of her marital relationship, and the involvement of the women in her ancestral life line who suffered through seemingly similar adversities, as it relates to the significance of the number seven. She struggles with the basis of how and why they all found themselves trapped in cruel and loveless circumstances despite their efforts; how they sacrificed their dreams, aspirations, and even their sanity, for the men whom they'd loved, but for reasons beyond a larger scope, could never love them back.

Elegy

This story opens in the early nineteen sixties, at a fictional isolated Catholic Convent somewhere in North Wales. As the story gently unfolds, the main characters honestly start to consider the foundations, and tribal marking of organised religion, especially of their own. (Devout Christians will find this book to be a very challenging read.) Calmly they each discard their belief that Christ was the only Son of God. Christ's message however; 'love Thy neighbour as Thyself' is happily acknowledged as the only way of ensuring the continuing survival of the Human Race. Weaving around this main theme are several honest, if rather robust, love stories. At appropriate points, the debilitating effect of loneliness is sympathetically portrayed, and arguments against committing suicide are also presented. Kirkus reviews: - An engaging tale. The story is strong and the erotica is nicely balanced by the humanity of the characters

Lorna Doone

My promise to \"Jesus\" and understanding my message. I realize the Lord has allowed me to experience, endure and witness a great deal by protecting me all these years. My message is to enlighten society by using my past as an example of belief, faith and wisdom. Greatness of good is a gift from God. Evil is a powerful force of nature. Society will use the phrase, \"It's human nature\" as an excuse for any wrong doings towards anyone who has an identity crisis. But, is it human nature or just an evil act of malice behavior depending on the person? My opinion is goodness in people hearts are being de-sanitized by the strength of evil only if allowed. Be \"real\" to yourself by being yourself. Having faith will carry you through the challenges of life. Remember, \"An anger mind is the devil's workshop\". I always say, \"Great people who represent good may pay the ultimate price on earth. But, the Lord's reward is life everlasting spirit in heaven\".
